4. [redacted] stated that [redacted] intentions to maintain his [redacted] who would probably would go [redacted] for a year for a two-week period. His work would not be along [redacted] lines, but simply in line with his official work as [redacted] stated he had no plans whatsoever to leave [redacted] he is a consultant either secretly or otherwise and that if our Agency is in any way interested in [redacted] he could be assured that [redacted] would hold no control over him in connection with any work he might do for us.

6. [redacted], as you recall, [redacted] showed a considerable enthusiasm for the ANTICOMM work and since he has continued research and experimentation along the lines of ANTICOMM, it would appear that he would possibly be very valuable indeed as a covert consultant in connection with our program [redacted] as you will note, [redacted] has changed his [redacted] recently from [redacted] [redacted] in organization whose offices are [redacted] [redacted] his new address [redacted]

6. The writer is of the opinion that [redacted] will always be employed in some position where he has access to and probably will work in a chemical laboratory. In view of the previous statements of [redacted], the writer believes that [redacted] would work at his own home and use the facilities of the laboratory where he is employed to do confidential research work for us.

7. It is, therefore, recommended that consideration be given to placing [redacted] on our rolls as a covert consultant on the ATOM-CHIEF program or any other matters of similar interest to us. It is suggested that if favorable consideration is given to this idea that either you or the writer arrange a contact with [redacted] and sound him out (officially) in connection with a future consultancy with us. [redacted], for the record, holds [redacted] Secret clearance and as mentioned above is [redacted].
